Miss Emily C. Prudden, Founder 1885

“We . . . wish that we could tell her of the development which has come with the passing of the years and of how finally her elementary school for mountain boys and girls has become a strong liberal arts college for men and women from many states and nations, and of how her original investment of $1500 has grown . . . We would like to tell her, too, that the administration of the college is still dreaming dreams and daring to do the impossible . . . ”

Orientation '84

Orientation is a very busy, yet fun time here at Pfeiffer. The orientation team, headed by Sam Misenheimer and Kim Glacklin, was a strongly bonded group that helped with suitcases, trunks, and whatever else that seemed to find its way to Pfeiffer. Orientation also includes many dances sponsored by AMS, AWS, and RLC, that seem to attract many freshmen and transfers. There are also many seminars, refreshments, and a trip sponsored solely by RLC. Many friendships are made and this is the most important time for freshmen and new upperclassmen students to feel welcomed and secure. Orientation is indeed an important part of the Pfeiffer difference.

Qualifications for the Chairman of Orientation is a process of signing up and coming before the Executive council of SGA. This chairman or co-chairmen will then be in a group of selecting those they feel will express the outgoing personality of Pfeiffer. This team, along with counselors, RD's, and Student Affairs will then welcome and entertain our new students the week before classes resume.

Stephanie Wilson—1984 Homecoming Queen

The 1984 Homecoming activities centered on the theme of Centennial Celebration. The homecoming dance, held at Fiber Industries in Salisbury, featured performances by Push and the crowning of senior Stephanie Wilson, as Homecoming Queen.

Other activities included a soccer win over East Carolina University, a club carnival on the front lawns of Rowe and Merner and a Homecoming parade. The highlight of the day was the unveiling of a centennial monument constructed of bricks from the original Oberlin School and featuring a glass enclosed early school bell.

Everyone had fun at homecoming and as usual those in charge did a fantastic job with the dance, entertainment, and carnival.

All three seniors look great during the parade. It was a hard decision!

Special Friendships!

Halloween

Pfeiffer celebrated Halloween 1984 with the AMS and AWS sponsoring dorm trick or treat hours and a dance and costume contest at the lake. Winners in the costume contest were: A Boy George look-alike by Kendall Wright; a beer bottle by Chris Griffin; a Christmas package by Way Poteat and Penny Rowan; a male fairy princess by Ron Golden; a scary nun and priest by Michael Gillette and Matt Biedermann; and two barbarians by Hunter Carnnagio and Bo Turner. Halloween was a great success and the cafeteria provided terrific participation, support, and decorations.

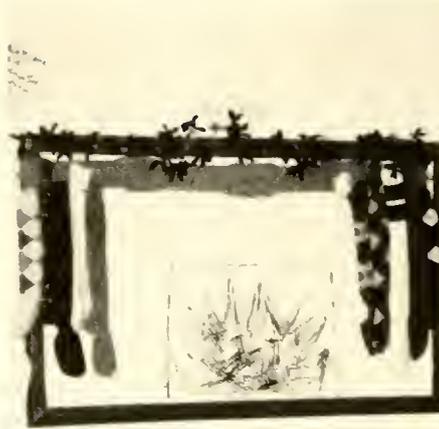

And the music played on,

and on and on . . .

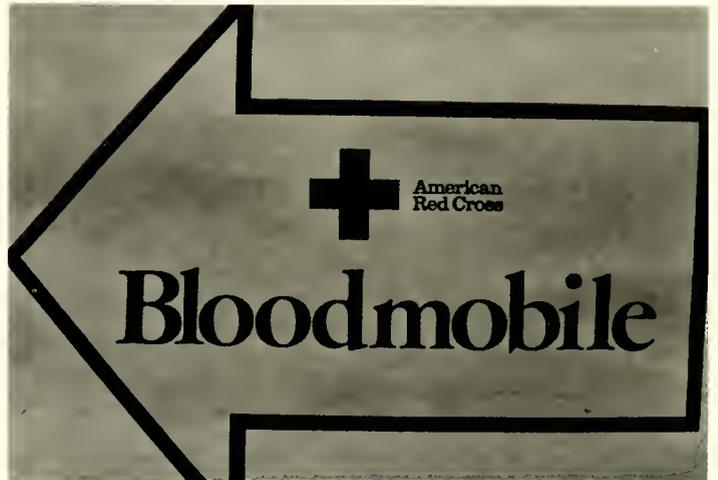

Williamsburg Christmas

Williamsburg Christmas is a tradition at Pfeiffer College. Every December, students and faculty get together and decorate dorms and buildings. White candles and red bows are combined with all natural ornaments such as fresh greenery and holly to create a colorful, yet traditional holiday.

Blood Mobile

Pfeiffer College was the scene of two bloodmobiles in the months of October and February. Not only students participated, but faculty, staff and community played a big part in this worthwhile event. Carl Berth and Kathy Wolf were extremely important in the organization and publicity for these blood mobiles.

Pfeiffer Presents

'The Real Inspector Hound'

The Pfeiffer Theatre opened its season with a fall production of Tom Stoppard's "The Real Inspector Hound". Directed by Jim Veenstra, the superb cast played to sell-out crowds. The romantic leads were played by Kendall Wright and Barry Lyons. Other cast members included Mindy Smith, Jeff Norville, Janet Helmer, and Brett Chappell.

A number of reviews highlighted the southern accents of the three females and applauded them for their achievement.

Out of this play, the Pfeiffer Playmakers chose the best actor and actress of the year — Dexter Ramey and Kendall Wright.

Cast—Emily Lefler, Mark Thwaites, T. Scott Earnhardt, Elizabeth McPhail, Jeff Hinson, Ellen Stephenson, Dexter Ramey, Erik Berg, Barry A. Lyons, Rodney Webb, Jay Laurens, Satoni Shiohara, Kurt Peterson.
Chorus—Valerie Baldwin, Barbara Barnard, Scott Blackshire, Carol Briggs, Brett Bowen Chappell, Mildred Davis, Reed Furr, Althea Gengenbach, Randy Harris, Janet Helmer, Joseph Judge, Jeff Norville, Phyllis Piano, Karoline Watson, Kimberly Whipple.
Orchestra—Sarah Lee Warner, Deborah Watwood, Joy Miller, Brandalyn Grier, Rick Almond, Rick Hoffmann, Ann Queen, Paul Askew.
Director—James Veenstra
Asst. Director—T. Mark Plyler
Technical Mgr.—Mindy Smith
Vocal Director—Dr. Richard H. Brewer
Orchestra Conductor—Robert Gehner
Choreographer—Lynn Caudle Joyce

Something Always 'Happens' Here

Aprilfest 1985 . . .

Aprilfest was a week full of fun and excitement. The dance at the Salisbury Civic Center featured the court and the crowning of Maria Montoya. Music was provided by the Entertainers. Saturday's activities were at Gibson Lake. The annual boat race, old fashioned pictures, and a picnic were highlights of the weekend.

Student Government Association

1984-85 was a very productive year for the SGA with contributions which will effect Pfeiffer for years to come. These activities included: the purchase of glass display cases for the art gallery in Good Hall; a contribution to the admissions program used to purchase a modular display unit, and in the recruitment incentive program; planning, organizing, and funding for freshmen orientation; providing funds at Homecoming and Aprilfest weekends; and contributing toward the purchase of a suit for the Falcon Mascot. Officers for the Executive Council were: Jay Laurens—Pres.; Mark Honecker—V. Pres.; Sam Misenheimer—Sec.; Michele Wise—Treas.; Rusty Ring—Ex. Coord.; Alex Boyer—AMS; Mary George Johnson—AWS; and James Inman—RLC. SGA deserves much recognition!!!!

The Religious Life Council, the coordinating body of all campus religious organizations, is a diverse and active body. Representatives from all the religious organizations planned and implemented a retreat to the mountains along with the Williamsburg Christmas. They sponsored a variety of activities to help new students to adjust to life at Pfeiffer including a square dance, vespers, and a trip to the zoo. Officers were: James Inman—Pres., John Misenheimer—V. Pres., Kathy Wolf—Sec., and Kim Glacklin—Treas. R.L.C. sponsored a hymnal drive, clothing drive, and raised money for the famine victims in Africa.

Religious Life Council

Association Of Men Students

The Association of Men Students (AMS) is the representative group of Pfeiffer's male student population. The AMS executive council transmits men students' concerns, ideas, and thoughts to appropriate faculty members, administrators, trustees, and other student organizations. AMS then initiates action to benefit the male students here at Pfeiffer. With Alex Boyer as President some highlights were dorm TV's, senior gifts, freshmen breakfast, and film festivals.

College Union Board

The 1984-85 College Union Board had a very promising year. Besides the numerous mini-concerts, dances, etc., the CUB made beneficial improvements in campus entertainment. Executive officers are Mannette Skufca—Pres., Roseann DeTommaso—V.Pres., Tim Bridges—Sec., and Stephanie Wilson—Treasurer. CUB hopes to maximize student entertainment with current and appealing activities.

Counselors

Student counselors have the responsibility of helping freshmen adjust to college life academically and socially. They serve as role models, help with orientation, help keep the CAP center informed, assist the RD's in discipline, and plan programs for their hall and dormitory. Qualifications are one year residency and a GPA of 2.0 or higher.

Counselors for 1984-85 were Rowe—Kendall Wright, Diane Becker, Wendy Tucker, Jenny Smith, Heidi Honecker, Cathy Bond, and Ann Queen. Kluff—Kevin Allran, Martin Reeder, and Jeff Jones. Foote—Scott Hopkins, Greg Wells, Marc Dilonardo, Eric Meddaugh, and Jamie McGruder. (Much thanks goes to Marian!)

Residence Directors

Residence directors supervise the residence hall facilities. They are responsible for supporting and enforcing college policies, maintaining discipline, keeping Student Affairs informed of the morale and needs of the students, and solving any problems before they become crises. Requirements are two years in college, lived in a residence hall one year, and have a GPA of 2.0 or higher.

Residence Directors for 1984-85 were: Kathy Wolf and Stephanie Wilson—Cline; Robin Campbell and Colletta Bryce—Rowe; Karen Sanders and Renee Herrin—Merner; Mannette Skufca and Roseann DeTommaso—Washington; Steve Tomberlin and Clark Goodman—Foote; Mark Honecker and John Mercuri—Kluft; James Inman and Jay Laurens—Vaughn; Alex Boyer and Rusty Ring—Plyler; Bevan Gamewell and Greg Fletcher—Ervin. The Area Coordinator that took charge over the Residence directors was Miss Cindy Tackett. Her job was to maintain a link between the two.

1985 Falcons Continue Tradition

Standing: Trainer Kathy Richardson, Kathy Wolf, Tracey Wilson, Jackie Wiest, Karen Oakley, Sharon Norris, Alana Cooper, Sandy Becker, Christine Nystedt, Coach Nancy Ingram. Kneeling: Missy Johnstone, Diane Hernberg, Debbie Finch, Beth Connors, Roseann DeTommaso, Carolyn Pysher, Donna Ring, Elisa Smithson.

The 1984 Pfeiffer College Lady Falcon field hockey team compiled an impressive 8 wins, five losses and one tie in their NCAA Division I debut, which saw Pfeiffer power to strong wins over Southern Conference foes Appalachian State University and Davidson College by 2-0 and 5-0 margins.

Other highlights, as third year coach Nancy MacDade Ingram directed the Lady Falcons, were 3-0 and 1-0 victories over rival Catawba College, and pushing Atlantic Coast Conference power Duke University into overtime, before bowing 2-1.

Linker Sharon Norris tallied eight goals to lead the scoring and added two assists. Forward Kathy Wolf and freshman Diane Hernberg both tabbed three goals each and junior Alana Cooper helped with a team high seven assists.

Wrestlers Have Rebuilding Year

Highlights of the 1984-85 Pfeiffer College wrestling season included dual meet victories over Lynchburg College 45-6 and Furman University 41-13 and Reinhardt Gray's second place finish at the 1985 NAIA District 26 Tournament.

Coach Richard Johnson took over the helm in his first season at Pfeiffer with one of the youngest line-ups in the history of the program, slating six freshmen starters, two sophomores and two juniors in the ten weight classes. However, he guided a very young Pfeiffer team to a 2-9-1 dual meet record with fifth place finishes at the Washington and Lee and Elon tourneys.

In all the team wrestled in three invitational tournaments and twelve dual meets. Pfeiffer also participated in the NAIA District 26 Championship, placing fifth, and in the NCAA Division 2 South Regionals, placing fourth.

Pfeiffer Goes to NAIA Nationals

The 1984-85 Pfeiffer College basketball team claimed the NAIA District 26 Championship with a convincing 78-59 victory over Pembroke State University and then marched past 10th ranked Southwestern (Texas) University in a first round NAIA Championship contest by a 79-59 score before bowing to fast-breaking Marycrest College (Iowa) 83-75, in a second round game at the Kansas City, Missouri based NAIA classic. This marked the first time Pfeiffer College placed a basketball team in national contention.

Pfeiffer ended its regular season with a 19-7 record before winning the District 26 Championship. Season honors show Craig Cordes and Tony Davis named to the 1985 Carolinas Conference team and Cordes named All-Conference and NAIA All-American Honorable Mention. Mike Moody and Cordes were also named to the district tournament team, where Moody was also named MVP.

The 1985 Pfeiffer College women's tennis team downed NAIA District 26 foes Belmont Abbey 9-0, Gardner-Webb 5-3, and Lenoir-Rhyne 9-0, in a rebuilding season that saw number one singles player Patti Goodman collect a fine 8 wins and 5 losses as a freshman.

Although compiling a 3-10 overall season record, Pfeiffer finished 7th in the Carolinas Conference tournament, scoring 25 points, and tabbed a respectable 7th place finish in the District 26 tournament with 7 points.

The Pfeiffer College cheerleaders for 1984-85 were: Coletta Bryce and Stephanie Wilson (Co-Captains); Brigette Poplin, Kelly Blanchette, Jody Wilkerson, Nancy Cranmer, and Kathy Jaudon. They had an exciting year and proved that talent does go along with cheering for your team. Along with the cheerleaders they had Brenda Hurlocker, who was the mascot, Freddy Falcon. Much recognition goes to these people and to Angie Lefler — Advisor.

In Memory of Dr. Fred West

We were saddened at the loss of Dr. Fred West in the summer of 1984.

Dr. West had been on the Pfeiffer history faculty from 1968 until his retirement. He coached the Falcon Men's tennis squads from 1968-70 and 1983-84.

Quite a tennis player himself, West had played in the U.S. Open at Forest Hills, the Texas Open, and the North Carolina Seniors Tournament. He won the Texas Open and was the N.C. Seniors champion seven times. But more importantly, he won our hearts.

1984-85 marked the year Pfeiffer College made its national debut on ABC's "Good Morning, America" program. Student representatives greeted over a million viewers with a "Good morning" from the steps of Good Hall.

"CHIMES"
PFEIFFER COLLEGE YEARBOOK

To Whom It May Concern:

"Make it big, make it good, make it special; it's the Centennial Yearbook, it's got to be good...". So from day one the pressure was on. But being of sound mind and body, we undertook this vast project; and things were running smoothly, at first. We raised additional funds to allow for special supplements to the book. Then, with the resignation of Mr. Larry Sides, we were set back in production for about four months, but with the new ICP representative, this yearbook has finally been published. Publication would not have been possible without the determination and encouragement of Debbie Estes, our advisor, and our faithful staff. To all of these people and to those of you who have supported us throughout this ordeal, we say thank you.

We ask you to take these things into consideration as you look back over this yearbook and to look now at the most important part of this centennial year; the way we have taken the past and blended it with the present to produce an image of what we think Pfeiffer College is ... The Past and the Present, but most importantly people like you and me.

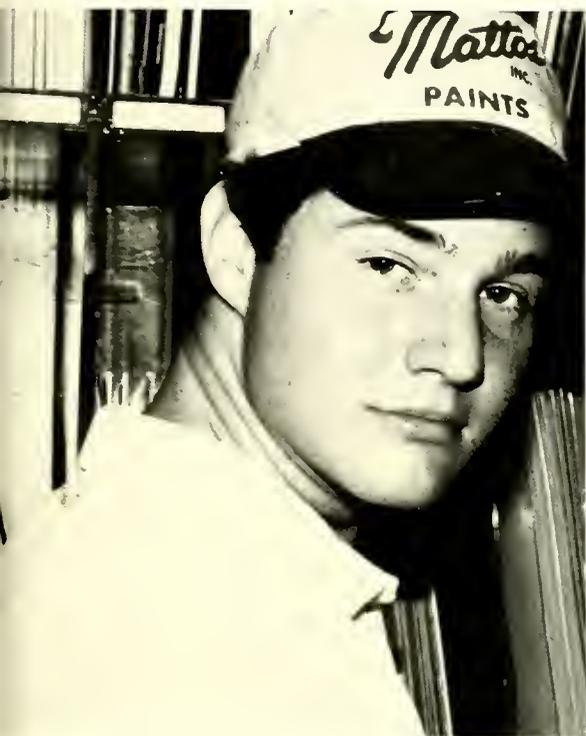

Thank you,

Wade and Kendall
